

International University Seminar of Balkan Studies and Specialization
XXIII International Round Table
SILENCE ON THE BALKAN
24-26 of April 2014

24 of April
Room 114, Building 1, South-West University

9⁰⁰ – 10⁰⁰ - Registration

10⁰⁰ – 10¹⁵ Official Opening of the XXIII International Round Table

10¹⁵ – 13⁰⁰
Plenary Session

1 PANEL
Chair Person: Iliya Nedin

Liljana Dejanova (Sofia, Bulgaria)
The silence about the archives of Socialism

Petr Stehlik (Brno, Czech Republic)
Pitfall of false objectivity or what should not foreign Balkan scholars remain silent about

Tsvetana Georgieva (Sofia, Bulgaria)
There is “a time to whist, a time to talk”: through the concept of silence in the Bulgarian culture from the beginning of 20-th century

Elena Krejchova, Mirna Stehlikova (Brno, Czech Republic)
Is silence golden? What the journals about minorities do not speak about

Tatjana Nevskaja (Stavropol, Russia)
The silence of women and the culture of “avoiding” in North Caucasus

14³⁰ – 18⁰⁰
2 session
Chair Person: Kristina Popova

Pavel Pilch (Brno, Czech Republic)
Silence of the partisans – silence in the Yugoslav partisan comics

Stanislav Filipov (Blagoevgrad, Bulgaria)
The silence of archives – problems with the access to State Security archive

Kristina Popova (Blagoevgrad, Bulgaria)
The silent end of the dream about Communism

International University Seminar of Balkan Studies and Specialization
XXIII International Round Table
SILENCE ON THE BALKAN
24-26 of April 2014

Petar Vodeniccharov (Blagoevgrad, Bulgaria)

Behind the facade of the state feminism in Socialist Bulgaria: the silenced women in the newspaper "Worker's mission" 1976

Nurie Muratova (Blagoevgrad, Bulgaria)

State secret and the silent archive fond of GLAVLIT

Olga Kharlan (Berdyansk, Ukraine)

The topic of the silent hero in the literature of the totalitarian society (based on the prose of Valerian Pidmohylny)

Momchil Badzhakov (Sofia, Bulgaria)

The "silent majority" on the Balkans

16³⁰ – 17⁰⁰
Coffee break

Nela Martinková (Brno, Czech Republic)

Elections without words

Olga Sienicheva (Berdyansk, Ukraine)

Inner speech and silence as means of communication

Pavel Krychi (Brno, Czech Republic)

From the explication to the silencing or about the changes in the introduction texts of Croatian, Serb and Bosnia linguistic guides

2 PANEL

13³⁰ – 18⁰⁰
1 session

Chair Person: Elena Tacheva

Vanya Lozanova-Stantcheva (Sofia, Bulgaria)

Philomela or the silence of women in the old ancient tragedy

Elena Azmanova (Blagoevgrad, Bulgaria)

The great silence: Ivan Grozev. Literature documents and secret societies in the biography of the writer

Olga Petrovna Novyk (Berdyansk, Ukraine)

Silence as a motif of the poetry of Romanticism

Panajot Karagjozov (Sofia, Bulgaria)

International University Seminar of Balkan Studies and Specialization
XXIII International Round Table
SILENCE ON THE BALKAN
24-26 of April 2014

„To bear”, “to mend” , “to keep silence” in the novels of Ivo Andric

Neli Metodieva (Sofia, Bulgaria)

The silence of the exile

16³⁰ – 17⁰⁰

Coffee break

Marina Vladeva (Burgas, Bulgaria)

Outlines of (lapsing into) silence and utterance in the “Face” novel by Blaga Dimitrova

Atanaska Metodieva (Blagoevgrad, Bulgaria)

The silence of the introductions in literature works. Yevgeny Yevtushenko and the child - miracle Nika Turbina

Maria Chorbadzhieva (Blagoevgrad, Bulgaria)

Impossible silence or how the texts of Miroslav Krleža communicate with world

Petar Parashkevov (Blagoevgrad, Bulgaria)

The silence about the motivation of Stefan Verkovic and Ivan Gologanov about the authorship of the epic songs “Veda Slovena”

18⁰⁰ - Presenting new books
Journal “Balkanistic Forum”

19 o'clock – Cocktail

International University Seminar of Balkan Studies and Specialization
XXIII International Round Table
SILENCE ON THE BALKAN
24-26 of April 2014

25 of April
Room 114, Building 1, South-West University

PANEL 1

1 session

9³⁰ – 13⁰⁰

Chair person: Petar Vodenicharov

Dragoş Bălan (Constanta, Romania)

Values of silence in Theology and Philosophy

Tucă Nicușor (Constanta, Romania)

Ritual between voiced and unvoiced - the value of gesture and symbol in cult

Petko Petkov (Sofia, Bulgaria)

About silence. To the interpretation of two texts of St. Gregory of Sinai

Ionuț Holubeanu (Constanta, Romania)

The silence of the Christian martyrs

11⁰⁰ – 11³⁰

Coffee break

Svetlana Hristova (Blagoevgrad, Bulgaria)

The silence of the stones: visual discourses on the graveyards

Hristo Saldzhiev (Stara Zagora, Bulgaria)

Prophecies and their interpretations – examples of pre-modern nationalism

Evgeniya Ivanova (Sofia, Bulgaria)

The Pomacs – a disturbed silence

Vencislav Bozhinov (Blagoevgrad, Bulgaria)

A silenced identity (biographical narratives of Bulgarian Turks converted to Christianity after 1912)

Sergey Vuchkov (Blagoevgrad, Bulgaria)

The silenced in the education policy to the Muslims in the period between the World wars

Shaban Darakchi (Sofia, Bulgaria)

Power aspects of the male and female silence in a Muslim community in Bulgaria

2 session

International University Seminar of Balkan Studies and Specialization
XXIII International Round Table
SILENCE ON THE BALKAN
24-26 of April 2014

14⁰⁰ – 17⁰⁰

Chair person: Nurie Muratova

Yanko Hristov (Blagoevgrad, Bulgaria)

Struggles between thirteenth century Balkan states and the fate of the prisoners of war

Vladimir Janev (Skopje, Macedonia)

Praying and praising the Messiah in silence

(the movement of Shabbatai Zvi and its influence on the Jews in Ottoman empire)

Iakovos Michailidis (Thessaloniki, Greece)

Ottoman period in the Greek history. Aspects of the historiography and public memory

Anastasiya Pashova, Mariana Piskova (Blagoevgrad, Bulgaria)

The silence about the whiteguards veterans from the Russian-Ottoman War 1877-1878 in the Communist Bulgaria

Olga Chernishova (Stavropol, Russia)

To the question of the Russian emigrants on the Balkans

Maria Trofimova (Stavropol, Russia)

Internet – the end of silence: Russian-Turkish War 1877-1878 in the Russian language Internet

Biljana Ristovska-Josifovska (Skopje, Macedonia)

Voiceless testimony of everyday life in Macedonia (1905-1912)

PANEL 2

1 session
9³⁰ – 13³⁰

Chair person: Milena Angelova

Aleksandar Atanasovski (Skopje, Macedonia)

Silence of women in Byzantium between the laws and the reality

Zhorzheta Nazarska (Sofia, Bulgaria)

(Self)imposed silence: “rewriting” the biographies of Bulgarian intellectuals after 1944

Tania Reytan – Marincheshka (Plovdiv, Bulgaria)

Elided issues of the Balkan manhood

Ljuboslava Kostova (Sofia, Bulgaria)

International University Seminar of Balkan Studies and Specialization
XXIII International Round Table
SILENCE ON THE BALKAN
24-26 of April 2014

The women's silence and the new reproductive practices – an attempt for bio-ethical content analysis of Women Consultation

11⁰⁰ – 11³⁰
Coffee break

Mariana Pramatarova (Burgas, Bulgaria)

The victims of domestic violence are discriminated in Bulgaria

Veselka Toncheva (Sofia, Bulgaria)

The women from Golo Bordo region, Albania: voice and muteness

Milena Angelova (Blagoevgrad, Bulgaria)

The silenced female story in a family archive (the case of Proevsky)

2 session
14⁰⁰ – 17⁰⁰

Chair person: Marinela Mladenova

Elena Remova Stojanova (Blagoevgrad, Bulgaria)

The silenced reformer of the Serb Cyrillic

Hanna Vusik (Berdyansk, Ukraine)

The strategic resources of the silence in the language policy (socio-linguistic aspect)

Rozana Rushiti (Tirana, Albania)

Euphemism such as “special codes” and “communication bridges” between language and folk, viewed in Albanian and regional context

Alla Serdiuk (Berdyansk, Ukraine)

The phraseological field of the concept МЪЛЧАНИЕ / SILENCE (comparative aspect)

Nadezhda Staljanova (Sofia, Bulgaria)

The political speech – between communication and silence

Dhimitri Bello, Anila Çepani (Tirana, Albania)

Silence in semantics of expressions and phraseologies in Albanian and Bulgarian language

Nadezhda Kostova (Sofia, Bulgaria)

Lexical semantics of verbs for keeping silence in Bulgarian language

Adelina Çerpja, Rafaela Marteta (Tirana, Albania)

Euphemisms about death - linguistic and cultural considerations in Albanian context

International University Seminar of Balkan Studies and Specialization
XXIII International Round Table
SILENCE ON THE BALKAN
24-26 of April 2014

Marine Aroshidze (Batumi, Georgia)

The information of silence and the problem of its decoding

Marinela Mladenova (Blagoevgrad, Bulgaria)

Slavic "micro languages" on the Balkans – the end of silence

26 of April

Closing the conference
