

WAR, SORROW, AND JUSTICE
Editors: Snezhana Dimitrova, Giovanni Levi

CONTENT:

Articles

Introductory words by editors: War, Sorrow, and Justice

Erik Ringmar. Experiencing the Outbreak of the First World War: A Critique of Cultural History

Veneta Doytcheva. Theatrical experience of War on the scene of the Bulgarian National Theater

Natalia Taccetta. Image and Gesture. In Pursuit of the WWI Filmic Archive

Heike Karge. The Schizophrenic Face of War: Cases of Austro-Hungarian Army at WWI

Ivan Obradovich. Three Images of Death – An Essay on the Perception of Death in Serbia, 1914–1916

Danilo Serenac. Burying and Remembering. The Serbian War Casualties and the Yugoslav Kingdom (1914–1941)

Maria Kavala, Evangelos Hekimoglou, Eleni Kaplitzoglou. World War I Economy's Effects: Fratelli Allatini from a Multinational Enterprise in Selânik to a Local Company in Greek Salonika

Roberto Bianchi. Furies, Workers and Organizers: Women and Anti-war Protest in Italy, 1914–18

Dimitar Bozhkov. Catastrophe in the Past: Some Remarks on the Eschatological Utopia and Postwar Germany of Weimar Era

Milan Ristovich. From “Blood Related” to “Racially Inferior”: The Labor Force from Southeastern Europe in the Nazi War Economy

Victor Neumann. Ethnicism in 20th Century: On Romanian Fascism and National-Communism

Giovanni Levi. Violence and Resistance in Cultural Transmission: Generations and time

Book reviews